

IRUM TAHIR, DC

Southern Chiropractic Conference

August 23-26, 2018

Dr. Irum Tahir has worked with chiropractors all over the world, from recent graduates to seasoned practitioners, teaching strategies for success in practice. Using a powerful and effective approach, Dr. Tahir's areas of expertise include hiring and integrating associates into practice, practice management and flow, facilitating communication and retirement/exit strategies. She will move your practice to a more team-oriented business creating greater revenue and helping more people.

Dr. Irum Tahir was named one of the top 100 Entrepreneurs under the age of 30 in the United States and has achieved great success in business in a short time. Using engagement, strategy and commitment, she is passionate about growing your practice to the next level of success.