

PAUL JASKOVIK, DC, DCRC, DACAN, CCSP, FICC

Southern Chiropractic Conference

August 23-26, 2018

Dr. Paul Jaskoviak is a 1975 graduate of National College of Chiropractic in Lombard, IL. He has a variety of postgraduate work including acupuncture, a residency in neurology and a sports injury certification.

Dr. Jaskoviak served as Dean of the Postgraduate Division of Texas Chiropractic College from 2014-2017, Dean of Postgraduate Division of Parker College from 1986-1999, and Dean of Postgraduate Division of National College of Chiropractic from 1975-1986.

He has presented more than 900 lectures to thousands of doctors throughout the United States, Europe, Mexico, Canada, Hong Kong, China, Korea, Singapore, Africa and the Caribbean. Dr. Jaskoviak also has numerous publication credits to his name, including Applied Physiotherapy, a textbook on physical therapy principles and procedures; one of the top selling texts in the chiropractic profession.